

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher?

2 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: I would say on those occa-
3 sions I was a member of a conference committee I merely 4 perceived more aptly than the members of the House their 5 true intention. (Laughter.) Answering the gentleman
6 specifically --

7 THE CHAIRMAN: I might add that is the Irish
8 answer to the question.

9 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: I would say to the gentle-
10 man there were occasions when the conference committee 11 improved considerably upon the product of both the 12 House and Senate, but I will admit there may have been 13 a genuine variation from what they thought they had agreed 14 to.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Hanson?

16 DELEGATE HANSON: Mr. Chairman, I should like
17 to yield three minutes to Delegate Hardwicke.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Hardwicke?

19 DELEGATE HARDWICKE: Mr. Chairman, members
20 of the Committee, in order to add something maybe new and 21 different to what has been said here this afternoon on this
